KICK-OFF MEETING OF THE EUROPEAN PROJECT "DIGITAL ON STAGE" IN STOCKHOLM

The inaugural #KickOffMeeting for the European project "DIGITAL on STAGE" was a resounding success! Representatives from six partner organizations across Europe came together to exchange ideas, collaborate, and plan the next steps for this innovative initiative, laying the foundation for impactful progress.

"DIGITAL on STAGE" aims to transform the performing arts by integrating cutting-edge technology. The project seeks to enhance artistic experiences through real-time digital tools, unlocking new opportunities for theater, dance, music, and more.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

The DIGITAL on STAGE partners are currently in the process of developing a comprehensive Guidebook of good practices in the partner countries. Specifically, the partners, through desk research and distributing an online survey to a total of 120 representatives of the digital performin arts sector, are gathering a total of 120 good practices of application of AR, VR, AI, and other digital technologies and tools into the performing arts. By the end of 2024 the practical guide The Digital Realm will be available to the public.
